DAV MOVEMENT

The ennobling and inspiring force of the reformatory movement led to the inception of the 'Dayanand Anglo Vedic (DAV) College Trust and Management Society', which was registered in 1886 under the societies Registration Act XXI of 1860. DAV very soon turned out to be a very popular, forceful and important educational movement of our country. The architects of DAV movement were personally committed and dedicated to form a truly educational enterprise that responded to the aspirations of the community and thereby the nation.
